1 2 20 Split Die Thread Chaser Repair threads faster

Our "Split Die Thread Repair System" is designed to save you time and money. Because the hex dies are split and utilize a special spring design, you can place the metric and standard thread dies below the damages on your bolt or stud, then using a six point deep well socket, chase the threads clean. This patented system is fast and easy to use, and because you start on clean, undamaged threads, you eliminate the possibility of cross threading.
