Gender Equality Intersectionality and Diversity in

"This is a theoretically engaging and methodologically sophisticated book on one of the key debates in contemporary politics and gender studies: gender equality and its relationship to intersectionality. The book is an excellent study about the ways in which gender equality and diversity are framed and institutionalized in European policy. Its empirical case studies reveal how gender equality

Intersectionality of Gender Inequality and Racial

This topic has been met with some extensive research in terms of how the Intersectionality between gender and race leads to ethnic-based violence, trafficking, and obstacles within the economic, political, and social spheres, both private and public. In addition it has brought challenges to the forefront of how to properly study Intersectionality, as it is a field that is both multi-dimensional and multi-departmental.

the necessity of an intersectional approach to gender equity. Reporting diversity data on faculty, staff, and students at universities is important for transparency, drawing attention to issues, and tracking progress. However, more must be done to bring about the culture shift necessary to create and sustain an inclusive campus whereby different perspectives and experiences are sought out and
