Yet the participants in this thriving, persuasive proslavery culture have been hidden away in the histories of British abolition, their power and influence downplayed, and their reputations ruined as they are continually cast aside in favor of the triumphant narrative of British abolition. This is the first book to focus on the strategies, the successes, and the failures of the many people who

Proslavery Wikipedia

Proslavery is an ideology that perceives slavery as a positive good. Ancient and medieval views. Aristotle claimed that some people were natural slaves, and that it was in the best interests of these people to be enslaved. He writes in book I of the Politics: Accordingly, those who are as different [from other men] as the soul from the body or man from beast and they are in this state if
